Belinda the Ballerina | Amy Young

Belinda was an amazing ballerina who was very graceful and talented. She was unlike many other dancers, because her feet were very large. When she performed at the Annual Ballet Recital, the judges told her she would never make it as a dancer because her feet were too big. Belinda took their advice and quit dancing.

Belinda the Ballerina by Amy Young - Goodreads

Tall, thin Belinda is a talented teenage dancer, but her feet are far too large for her to advance in dance. (Her yard-long, pink pointe shoes are nearly as long as her legs.) In Young's first published work, she imbues her starring character with confidence and good sense as well as talent, which shows in the illustrations as well as the text.
