We already know that many people who are raped don't report it, so this would make it impossible for even people who actually have been assaulted to prove that they are "worthy" of an abortion. Also, lives conceived through rape are fundamentally no different than fetuses conceived otherwise, so this argument destroys the "pro-life" belief of many anti-abortionists.

Your Pro-Choice Cheat Sheet: How to Respond to Anti ...

Pro-choice people have long pointed out how "baby" and "unborn child" are manipulative ways to refer to an unwanted fetus. But calling all fetuses "clumps of cells" is also an insensitive use of rhetoric, because there are some fetuses that are truly loved and wanted, and to those parents the fetus is far more special.
