Heiress (Daughter of Fortune, Book One) Written by Susan May Warren Review by Marie Burton. Set in the famously extravagant Gilded Age of New England, Heiress tells the story of the Price sisters, Esme and Jinx, who could not be more different. Esme wishes that society protocol would allow her to work alongside her father, the publisher of the Chronicle newspaper, and Jinx wishes to be at the ...

Heiress (Daughter of Fortune, Book One) - Historical Novel ...

I think Susan May Warren wrote 'Heiress' in a very believable way. Since there was so much sadness, the story felt very realistic. There were a lot of twists (some I expected) and the ending to 'Heiress' makes me really want to read 'Baroness' - book two in the 'Daughters of Fortune' series. I very much recommend 'Heiress'.
