Tommy's statement represents Kathy's misunderstanding about the song "Never Let Me Go." It also represents her confusion at Madame's reaction to seeing her dance to the song. Tommy is only partially correct—it isn't the inability to have babies that is tragic to Madame, it's the realization that the clones are human beings who have desires and dreams.

Never Let me Go Quotes | Course Hero

Never Call Me A Hero is an incredible story of courage, war and love, written by a man from Coffeyville, Kansas, who was most certainly a hero having bombed two Japanese carriers and one cruiser during the Battle of Midway, the most significant naval engagement in the history of the United States and the turning point against Japan in the war in the Pacific.
