The Pandora Directive is the fourth in a series of adventure games starring hard-boiled detective Tex Murphy. This game continues after Under a Killing Moon. The games are set in a dystopian future and deal with crimes against the backdrop of humans living in tenuous harmony with mutants.

Personally, I find some of the adult games I've played to feel more realistic in some ways than non-adult games. Kinda like the difference between watching a rated-G movie vs a rated-R movie. Whether people like it or not, sex is a part of society, and I find the games that include sex aren't sugar-coating their world, thus they feel more 'real'.
