Raise The Red Lantern Three

Su Tong's three novellas speak on the surface of gender and sexual repression, but underneath that layer it is brilliant and brutal humanization of a culture that has repressed itself for centuries. While "Raise the Red Lantern" carries the title of this collection, "Opium Family" is my favorite novella of the three.

Gong Li: Raise the Red Lantern ("A Woman's Fate") Monologue

The Chinese film "Raise the Red Lantern" (1991), like the Japanese film "Woman in the Dunes" (1960), is about sexual enslavement. In both films, the protagonist enters a closed system from which there is no escape, and life is ruled by long-established "customs." In the Japanese film, a woman captures a man, who spends the night in her home at the bottom of a hole in the desert and finds in ...
