I enjoyed The Biscuit Girls, true stories of girls born in the 30s 40s and 50s. I thought the book was very informative about the Carr family and the factory itself. I was born in 1946 in Coventry, which had many factories, producing machines, machine tools, cars, textiles and various other things, but not food factories.

For the biscuit girls it was a place where they worked hard, but also where they gossiped, got into scrapes and made lifelong friends. Outside the factory walls there might be difficult husbands or demanding kids, and sometimes even heartbreak and tragedy, but they knew there would always be an escape from their troubles at Carr's.
