Divan of Hafiz English-Persian, The

Divan of Hafez, Persian miniature, 1585. The poem illustrated is Ghazal 185. Many semi-miraculous mythical tales were woven around Hafez after his death. It is said that by listening to his father's recitations, Hafez had accomplished the task of learning the Quran by heart at an early age (that is the meaning of the word Hafez).

Hafiz · Rumi - Rumi quotes and Rumi Poems

In Islamic cultures, a Divan is a collection of poems by one author. The Divan of Hafez consists primarily of sonnet-like verses (ghazals) quatrains (ruba'is), and a few miscellaneous odes (qasidas) and fragments (qit'as). Strong mystical themes abound, along with social criticism and philosophical and intellectual insights.
