White Fang Study Guide Question

As mentioned in the analysis of the first two sections, this part of White Fang seems more like a separate short story. London was a master of the short story, and this side story deals with many of the same themes that White Fang deals with. London uses this tale to describe the setting of the North and to tell about the constant struggle of life for survival.

Think especially of White Fang's change from a domineering, vicious animal of the wild to that of a totally civilized animal. 3. Because Part One of the novel takes place before White Fang is born, justify the inclusion of this part of the novel, dealing with the episode of Henry and Bill, who are never heard from or seen again in the course of the novel.

White Fang - CliffsNotes Study Guides

Parts I and II of White Fang raise this question by juxtaposing two dramatic fights for survival: those of the gold-rushers and those of the wolves. The human beings are clearly superior, called "gods" in relation to wolves and dogs-yet all are subject to the Darwinian struggle for survival.
