Wolfsong

Wolfsong is one of them. Maybe it's because Wolfsong is one of my favorite books ever. But, honestly, I think the truly exceptional narration by Kirt Graves is the reason. Hands down, newcomer voice actor Graves nails everything in Wolfsong. He is superb.

Wolfsong (Green Creek, #1) by T.J. Klune

Wolfsong is a story-rich experience detailing how a simple mistake can be the beginning of immense and terrible things. The heroes will attempt to stop a great war that could plague the land for generations. Heavily inspired by classic rpgs from the snes era and attempts to pay homage to them in many ways.

TJ Klune is such an amazing story teller, I love this author so much. So many good things to say about Wolfsong - it is a really emotional read, with Ox the kind of character TJ Klune is so good at portraying - friendless and undervalued for so long and 'found' by a family who see the real person.

Wolfsong is 19 hours of a story line that is sewn together beautifully, seamlessly. It is full of tenderness, laughing out loud humor, heroism and angst. I've enjoyed it so much that I restarted it, to listen to in full again, right after finishing it. I have over 1000 books in my audible library.
